G.O. Ms. No. 174 Public Health dated 20-1-1949.

The Government do not approve the proposal of the Director of Public Health that the powers of appointment disciplinary control etc., in regard to first class Health Officers may be delegated to them. They however generally approve his proposals in regard to delegation of powers of control over subordinate staff in the Public Health Department.

Separate orders will issue regarding the proposals of the Director of Public Health for redistribution of work among Assistant Directors of Public Health.
